Argh! I have to keep a better eye on them!
If... if they aren't in the class-room
You can't tell me it's not!!
Per-fect!
Light was coming from them. And we can always use the windows behind the curtains
I guess it's alright to remove these fluorescent lights...?

What are you doing building a clubroom here! Hurry up and put it back!!
Shii-chan!

I'm not joking!! If Saionji-san discovers you, she's going to blow up and do something crazy!!
We went to a lot of trouble to transform it this much
Now now

Sigh
YIKES!!

Before who finds out?
So fix this quick before she finds out!

What do you want this time?
This is no good Do I have to say that? Do I have to spell everything out for you?

Just go on!
Well we are right in the middle of a discussion
Yo is this a bad time to walk through?

The problem is you guys!
It will be a problem if we let people walk through our clubroom

Stop spouting gibberish to cover for your complete lack of common sense!!
Great idea
We can put up road blocks

SFX Shff

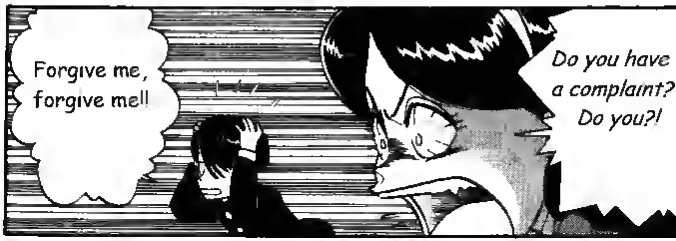
Yes ma'am
Argh
I thaught it was a good idea
It is hereby prohibited to turn this hallway into a clubroom!

Selfish
Even in hallways, there is a high class and a low class. Would it kill you to send us some help?
Bow
I'm sorry, so sorry.
Bow
Fume Fume Fume
They really don't get that they have no common sense!



Forgive me, forgive me!!
Do you have a complaint? Do you?!

Your problems come from the way you do things!!
We put a real effort into making a clubroom and then we get chewed out. It's annoying.

Horikawa

Sigh.

Oh I get it...
I'm doing it for you guys! I just wish you had some common sense!
You've been spending too much time with the Student Council.
Don't talk like that!!
Eventually, they burst.
Barrier.....
Shii-chan is going to be our barrier!
Strengthen all security measures.
They bother the other students. I need not explain further.
Wherever and whenever the Optics Club opens a new clubroom, do not show them any mercy.

You can't make a club-room on the emergency escape!!
